

A SHIRT TALE.

Men's Laundered Shirts, slightly soiled by handling, Manufacturer's Samples Flannel Shirts and Ladies' and Men's Summer Underwear

AT MARVELOUS REDUCTIONS.

ON SALE TO-DAY and THROUGHOUT THE WEEK.

- |                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                          |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 33c. Men's Fancy Percale Shirts, 2 Collars and a pair of Cuffs. Regular $1.00 Shirts.                                                            | $2.38 Fancy Silk Shirts, worth $4.00.                                                                  |
| 49c. Men's Laundered white Shirts, linen bosom, double back, slightly soiled by handling. Down from 75c.                                          | 25c. Men's fine India gauze Shirts, cheap at 35c.                                                        |
| 68c. Men's laundered white Shirts, linen bosom, N. Y. Mills muslin, all improvements, slightly soiled by handling. Value $1.00.                  | 48c. Genuine English Lisle Undershirts—imported. Actual value $1.00.                                    |
| 75c. Men's laundered white Shirts, finest made, plain pleated Marseilles bosoms, slightly soiled. Regular price $1.25 to $1.50.                 | 75c. Each ($1.50 suit) celebrated Bonbon French Balbriggan Underwear, the best in the world.            |
| 68c. Men's unlaundered Shirts, 2100 linen bosom, N. Y. Mills muslin, broad edge bosom, the best shirt made. Down from 92c. Others sell at $1.00. | 98c. A suit, hair line stripe French Balbriggan Underwear. Regular price $1.50. 98c. a suit.            |
| 75c. Fine Flannel Shirts, manufacturer's samples. Actual value $1.25.                                                                            | 10c. Ladies' Ribbed Bodies, extra fine and cool, worth 25c.                                              |
| 98c. Fine French Flannel Shirts, fancy stripe, yoke back. Elsewhere $1.25.                                                                       | 19c. Ladies' ribbed Balbriggan Jersey Vests, made from combed Egyptian cotton, French collar. Value 40c. |
| $1.88 Black English Taffeta cloth Shirts, the newest thing sold usually at $3.00.                                                               | $1.25 Ladies' linen bosom Shirts, very new and stylish.                                                 |

BASSETT & CO.

Great Bargains.

MEN'S

NECKWEAR.

ON SALE TO-DAY.

13c Teck Scarf worth 25c

19c " " " 35c

23c " " " 50c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

44c " " " 75c

SEASONABLE GOODS

AT

"OUT-OF-SEASON" PRICES.

- |                                                                  |        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Men's light weight all-wool chevrot suits worth $8.00, for      | $5.00 |
| Boys' " " new patterns all-wool chevrot suits, worth $8.00, for | 5.00   |
| Men's cottonade pants, worth 75c, for                            | .50    |
| Men's and boys' hickory harvest hats (damaged), only             | .05    |
| Men's widest brim harvest hats, perfect,                         | .10    |
| Men's manilla hats, worth $1.50 for                             | 1.00   |
| Young men's black straw, straight brim,                          | .50    |
| Men's seamless heavy cotton socks                                | .08    |
| Celluloid Collars, only                                          | .10    |
| Celluloid Cuffs, only                                            | .05    |
- JUST RECEIVED—The third shipment of Outing Ring Scarfs—the latest fad.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

- |                                                                                                                                            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 25 doz. La. genuine Dongola Button Shoes, opera and common sense, only on E last, worth $1.50, cut to $1.25.                             |
| 35 doz. La. turned kid opera slippers, sizes 2 1/2 to 8, only 50c.                                                                         |
| 10 doz. finest French kid hand turned Oxford Ties left out of the Bush stock, original prices $2.00 and $2.50, cut to $1.50 and $2.00. |

Repairing and half soling done nicely and promptly at lowest prices.

STORE CLOSING AT 7 O'CLOCK EVERY EVENING EXCEPT SATURDAY.

TERMS: ONE LOW PRICE IN PLAIN FIGURES.

J. H. ANDERSON & CO.

NOS. 1 and 3 MAIN STREET, GLASS COR.

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Sam'l Pitcher's old, harmless and quick cure for Infants' and Children's Complaints. Superior to Castor Oil, Paregoric or Kaffee Syrup. Children cry for Castoria. Millions of Mothers bless Castoria.

Castoria cures Colds, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eruption, Green healthy sleep; also aids digestion; Without narcotic stupefaction.

"I recommend Castoria for children's complaints, as superior to any preparation known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M.D., 111 So. Orange St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

THE CLYDE COMPANY, 77 Murray St., New York.

Central Tobacco Warehouse.

J. C. KENDRICK. J. H. PETTUS. GEO. S. IRWIN. T. W. SHAW

Kendrick, Pettus & Co., TOBACCO SALESMEN.

All Tobacco Insured unless we have written instructions to the contrary.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

SOLICITING YOUR PATRONAGE.

JOHN T. BODDIE, Boddie, Ky., Agent.

W. H. WHEELER. W. H. FAXON, Book-keeper. JOHN N. MILLS.

WHEELER, MILLS & CO., TOBACCO.

Warehousemen and Commission Merchants.

RUSSELLVILLE AND RAILROAD STREETS, HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Liberal Advance on Consignments. All Tobacco Sent Covered by Insurance.

T. C. HANBURY. M. F. SHRYER.

PEOPLES' WAREHOUSE,

HANBURY & SHRYER, PROP'S,

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. R. R. St. Bet 10th and 11th.

Careful attention given to sampling and selling all tobacco consigned to us. Liberal advances made on tobacco in store. Good quarters for teams and teamsters. All tobacco insured unless otherwise instructed.

Central Tobacco Warehouse,

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY,

H. H. Abernathy, Prop'r.

Personal attention paid to sampling and selling tobacco.

NAT GAITHER, Manager. JAMES WEST, Salesman.

PLANTERS WAREHOUSE.

The Nat Gaither Co., Proprietors.

TOBACCO COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

Hopkinsville - - - Ky.

Liberal Allowances on Tobacco in Store.

Five Months free storage to planters.

H. H. NELSON. F. W. DABNEY.

NELSON & DABNEY,

TOBACCO, GRAIN & COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

R. R. and 11th Sts. Hopkinsville, Ky.

Liberal advances made on Tobacco in store. All tobacco insured at cost of owner unless written instructions to the contrary.

ANOTHER MATTER.

A Good Story Told of a Couple of Good New England States.

It has been often enough said that the appearance of things depends largely upon the point of view from which one looks at them, and plenty of illustrations of this have been furnished at one time and another. One that has in it a spice of drollery is a story told of some nice old ladies—a story which shows other phases of human nature as well as the tendency to see every thing according to one's own prejudices.

Miss Prudence and Miss Patience were a pair of charming elderly maiden sisters, who lived with their father and mother on one of those fine old New England places of which so few are still left in the possession of the original families. The affairs of the establishment were largely carried on through one of those faithful "hired men" who were half servant and half friend, and who have now pretty nearly disappeared in the march of civilization.

William, a genuine Yankee, felt his own importance, and was somewhat brusque in speech. He had lived with the family so long that it had ceased to enter his mind that they could get on without him, and as a natural consequence of his own appreciation of himself he was often less respectful than might have been deemed desirable, for a man in his position.

"Sister," Miss Prudence said to Miss Patience one day, "I really think we shall have to get rid of William. He is so very disrespectful that there is no living with him."

"I don't think he is disrespectful," Patience answered. "At least, I haven't heard any thing out of the way."

"Why, sister, you know that he speaks of father as 'the old man' and mother as 'the old woman'."

"Well," Patience urged defensively, "father is an old man, and mother is an old woman."

"It isn't for him to be noticing it if they are," Prudence persisted. "It doesn't sound well."

"Oh, it is nonsense being so particular!" Patience rejoined. "We can't spare William just for a trifle like that."

"Yes," Patience said, "but that isn't the worst of it. You don't know the way in which he speaks of us."

"How does he speak of us?" demanded Patience, with a sudden change of manner.

"He calls us," Prudence said, solemnly, bringing the words out with awful slowness, "he calls us, you and me, sister, 'the old maids!'"

"He doesn't dare!" cried Patience, evidently losing the virtue for which she was cherished.

"He does, sister. That is the way in which he speaks of us, I assure you."

"Then he must go!" cried Patience, the other declared. "When he speaks of father and mother as old it is one thing, but when he dares to call us old, and old maids, too, that is a very different thing, and I will speak of him as William myself in the morning, and tell him we shall not want him on the place any longer. The insolent fellow!"—Youth's Companion.

LEARNING A LANGUAGE.

A Vocabulary of Ninety Words Answers for Ordinary Use.

How annoying it is not to be able to understand a language! With the scanty Spanish at my command I am able to ask for and get whatever I want, but in conversation can only obscurely guess the speaker's meaning by word caught here and there, generally at the end of a sentence. If only they would speak slowly, and use the shortest sentences and simplest words! Yet it is a decided advantage to be able to speak the language of the country. If only a lady for the people always suppose that you understand and know more than you really do, and this is a material benefit. One can learn with ease, and in a very short time, all that is absolutely necessary to make one's way through a foreign land. Here are a few hints:

Take first a lesson or two in pronunciation from a competent teacher; then master about a dozen verbs—the auxiliaries, of course—and several other irregular verbs should be acquired with perfect flexibility. Among the most useful of the latter are, in French, pouvoir, vouloir, and devoir; in Spanish, poder, querer and deber. Then the numerals should be learned, and so thoroughly as to be able quickly to count a hundred back-ward. After all, these amount to only two dozen words. Next follow half a dozen prepositions and half a dozen adverbs of time and place. And lastly, brief vocabularies of nouns, those in use in traveling (perhaps a dozen), at the hotel (a score), and in inquiring one's way about a town (a dozen).

Altogether, I believe that a vocabulary of ninety words, carefully selected, would answer every pressing need. Of course, in order to be thoroughly comfortable, one should carry with him a pocket dictionary. It is far better to procure this than any of the conversational manuals offered at the book-stores as royal roads to the acquisition of language. These are not to be recommended; their vocabularies contain words that one would never need, and omit some of the most necessary; their "conversations" are highly grammatical, stilted and unnatural.—Boston Traveler.

Reproducing Power of the Liver.

A scientific fact of great value, and one which should bring comfort to legions of that large class of persons who are weary of the caprices of an erratic or tardy liver had proved that large portions of the liver can be removed without serious disturbance to the animal functions of the human body. The explanation of this curious fact seems to be that the liver has a wonderful power of reproduction. Penfold found that, within a few days of the removal of portions of the liver, the work of its reproduction began, and that it proceeded with great rapidity to completion. In certain cases he found that within a period of a few weeks as much has been reproduced as has been removed, and this amounted occasionally to twice as much as had been left behind. These investigations have an interest altogether outside of that which is absolutely scientific, because they are not far from indicating the development of abdominal surgery, if it is understood that large portions of the liver may be removed without serious danger to life.—Richmond Despatch.

A Test for a Champion.

Mr. Downs—Did I understand you to say, Carrie, that that young man of yours is an athlete?

Miss Downs—Only an amateur, papa, but he's one of the strongest men in the athletic club. He lifted a thousand pounds the other day.

"Just him to him that the young man who marries you must be able to lift the mortgage off this house."—Boston Times.

WE CAN AND DO.

Guarantee Dr. Acker's Blood Elixir for it has been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is superior to all other preparations for blood diseases. It is a positive cure for syphilis poisoning, Ulcers, Eruptions and Pimples. It purifies the whole system and thoroughly builds up the constitution.

H. B. GARNER, Druggist.

"Fanny, dear, does your lover chew tobacco?"

"That's what he only chews gum."

"That's almost as great an evil."

"Perhaps, but of the two evils, he chews the least."—Plunder.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial.

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

"Mr. Optic, can you tell me who that dark-faced gentleman is over there?"

"Certainly, his name is Whiting."

"Is he an Italian?"

"No, he's Spanish."

"Indeed, I would not think so, for he don't look a bit like Spanish whiting."—Plunder.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken, and do not gripe. H. B. GARNER, Druggist.

WHY SOLDIERS DESERT.

Officers Think a Man in the Ranks an Inferior Being to Himself.

The following extracts from a soldier's letter received by the writer will show what life at some of the army posts is and how recruits view the efforts of the Government to find out the principal reasons for desertion:

"I have had the blues worse than is usual with me, and that is saying a great deal, for I have had one continued fit of the blues almost ever since I came here. Upon my word, life here is without exception the deadliest, dullest, and most miserable I have ever experienced. The same routine day after day, no change or variety of any kind, and the only thing we have to look forward to is that the winter is drawing to a close."

"Lately there was a board of inquiry in session for a long time for the purpose of discovering the causes of desertion. What conclusion they arrived at I do not know, but I will say that any enlisted man of ordinary intelligence could give many reasons for the great number of desertions which occur every year. The idea of a number of high officers of the army determining the cause of desertion is ridiculous if for only this reason: Deserters are not given a chance to state what caused them to desert, and the men who remain in the army who only stay because they are afraid of the consequences, and who could give the board plenty of information on the subject if they were allowed, have no opportunity to air their complaints, and, as you see, the men who are most concerned are not asked for their opinions."

"During the summer of 1889 articles were published in several New York papers in regard to food supplied to recruits at 'haid' the camp, saying that an officer of high rank had been interviewed and said that he would be satisfied to eat the same food as supplied to the soldiers there. After being stationed there four months, I can assure you that I do say that at the very best the food was such as only a very hungry man would care to eat. This is easily proved, as nine-tenths of the men actually spent the greater part of their pay in order to get something they could eat, and for which, by the way, they were charged double what they would have to pay in any town or city. And as you will see, no board of officers alone will ever determine the true cause of desertion. Officers think a man in the ranks an inferior being to themselves, in fact to be general 'dog-robbers.'"

"We had a desertion last night. A man who was on guard at the stable door last night, and who had a gun, a found his gun and belt, but no sentry, and when you consider that men find it necessary to leave in the dead of winter in North Dakota you may consider that there is something rotten in the State of Denmark."—N. Y. Times.

Cancer of the Lip Cured.

I suffered from Cancer on my lip that defied the skill of the best physicians of the State. I had it burned out, but the operation only made it worse, causing it to spread over more surface and cut deeper in. I finally had it burned off again, and used Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) to heal it up and drive the poison out of my blood. The effect of the Specific was magical. It healed up the Cancer entirely without leaving a scar, and a reminder of my disease. I was cured, and since then there has been no sign of a return of the Cancer. I will cheerfully answer any enquiries in regard to my case.

ENOS YOUNT, Bradford, Ohio.

A Prominent Druggist Cured.

"Eleven years ago I was suffering from an attack of White Swelling. A great many prominent physicians attended me but failed to effect a cure. I commenced using Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) and after using it for a few months I was entirely cured, and since then have had no symptoms of its returning. I feel that the cure is entirely due to the curative properties contained in S. S. S. I can cheerfully recommend it as a medicine to all suffering humanity."—PAUL V. KIRK, Druggist, Johnson City, Tenn.

Treatment on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.

SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

So Glad That's All.

The gentle bee is humming and the summer girl is coming, while the sprinkler cart the street is going through, and a host of city people, that in summer we shall keep'll soon be coming up to spend a month or two in the country, while the farmer will be giving in the garden if he pleases, and this rhyme could be completed if less rocky were the metro—That's all.—Berkshire News.

Grass—O dear! I'm cut. Lawnmower—Where is it? Grass—Where I'm blinding of course.—Plunder.

It can be taken in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day they are quail drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence, GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Do you think, Mr. Guzzler, that whiskey is good to clean silver with?"

"First rate, nothing better. It's cleaned all the silver out of my pocket."—Plunder.

IS LIFE WORTH LIVING?

Not if you go through the world a dyspeptic. Dr. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets are a positive cure for the worst forms of Dyspepsia. Indigestion. Flatulency and Constipation. Guaranteed and sold by H. B. GARNER, Druggist.

"Jack, what makes you call your girl Mosquito?"

"Because she's a little fly."—Plunder.

Cruel, fashionable mother! Why don't you look after the welfare of your sickly little child? The nurse hasn't sense enough to get it a box of Dr. Bull's Worm Destroyers.

"Are the Sultan's wives afraid of him?" asked a lady of a Turkish missionary.

"Yes, he's a harem scare 'em sort of a fellow."—Plunder.

A CHILD KILLER.

Another child killed by the use of opiate given in the form of Soothing Syrup. Why another of these children should be killed by the use of such a deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Dr. Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no opium or morphine. Sold by H. B. GARNER, Druggist.

Bride—George, dear when we reach town, let us try to avoid giving the impression that we are newly married.

"All right, Maude; you carry this bag."—Plunder.

CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS.

Is the complaint of thousands suffering from Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, etc. Did you ever try Dr. Acker's English Kennedy? It is the best preparation known for all Lung Troubles. Sold on a positive guarantee at 25c. and 50c.

H. B. GARNER, Druggist.

Wife (to sick husband)—John, I wish you'd try a New York Spring medicine. Dr. Fast highly recommends it.

Husband—What was it? Wife—He called it Rushing the Growler.

Visitor to the city—Beg pardon, sir, but I would like to ask what you consider the most attractive object of interest in New York?

Capitalist—Well, first mortgage bonds take the lead.—Plunder.

FOREIGN GOSSIP.

—Between 300 and 700 tons of ivory are imported into England each year.

—The Russian ukase forbidding female telegraphers to marry any persons except male telegraphers has been canceled.

—The water-rental of Scotland for nets and rods, is estimated at present at not less than $100,000 per annum.

—It has taken Germany nine years to complete a $7,000 building in Berlin, and Austria has worked twenty-one years on a $15,000 improvement at Vienna.

—The farmers and shepherds in the English moors declare that more grouse are killed annually in England by the telegraph wires than by all the sportsmen.

—Africa requires 2,000,000 blankets to supply the native population alone. Besides this there is a demand for woolen clothing for the ever-increasing white population. This has to be imported, although the cape wool is the best in the world.

—One of the visitors to the Eiffel tower has expressed in the Paris Figaro his sense of its height. "I would throw myself down from the top," he writes, "but that I am

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

PUBLISHED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY MORNINGS.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM.
SUBSCRIPTION $2 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Local reading notices 20 cents per line. Special notices 5 cents per line. Rates of advertising furnished on application.

Office 18 and 20 Ninth Street, over Post Office.

TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 1890.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Clerk Court of Appeals,
WOODFORD W. LONGMOOR, of Harrison County.

For Judge 1st Superior Court District,
WILLIAM H. YOST, Jr., of Muhlenberg County.

County Ticket.

For Judge,
THOS. J. MORROW.

For Attorney,
LARKIN T. BRASHER.

For Clerk,
WILLIAM COWAN.

For Sheriff,
W. MOSES WEST.

For Assessor,
DENNIS R. PERRY.

For Supt. of Schools,
PROF. S. L. FROGGE.

For Jailer,
GEO. W. LONG.

For Surveyor,
H. P. RIVES.

For Coroner,
DR. JNO. L. DULIN.

Save Your Certificates.

Part of section 14, Registration Law: "At the said election no vote shall be received unless the person offering to vote is on the registry provided in this act, and if his vote is challenged by an officer of the election, or by a bystander, unless he exhibit to the officers of the election the certificate of registration issued to him in accordance with the requirements of section twelve and thirteen of this act. Provided, however, that any person whose name is properly recorded on the registry provided by this act, and who has lost his certificate of registration, shall be allowed to vote after he shall have been sworn by one of the judges of the election and shall have stated under oath that he has lost said certificate of registration and that said certificate has not passed into the hands of another person with his knowledge or consent.

The Court of Appeals will adjourn to-morrow for the heated term.

Hon. John Young Brown made the first speech of the campaign at Morganfield Saturday, in a speech of two hours.

The Louisville Times announces that John D. White, the "Crested Jayhawk of the Mountains," will run against Longmoor for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, with the Bloody Shirt for a platform.

The trial of Drs. Grant and Blackburn, charged with grave-robbing, has been continued till October, in the Jeffersonville circuit court. Dr. Grant was too sick to attend the trial.

The Press Association meets at Winchester to-morrow. The editor of the KENTUCKIAN cannot be with the boys this time, but he desires to go on record in favor of Walton for President and Paducah for the next meeting.

The Court of Appeals Saturday afternoon affirmed a decision which requires the Henderson Bridge Company to pay the City of Henderson about $15,000 a year taxes. It will also give Henderson a large sum in back taxes.

Only one more week in which to be counted. If you have not been called upon by the end of this week, send your names to the KENTUCKIAN not later than Monday. Every name counts and nobody in Hopkinsville should be overlooked.

The trial of Dan O'Sullivan, charged with libeling Maj. D. W. Sanders in his paper, the Louisville Critic, has been in progress since Friday. There are several lawyers to speak on each side and the case will be rather long drawn out. A conviction would surprise the public.

The Kentucky Union Railroad has extended its lines into Breathitt county and the whistle of the locomotive was heard last week for the first time in that undeveloped land. It was a great day for Breathitt, one of the first counties in the State in mineral wealth.

In 1885 Hopkinsville, by a very imperfect census, showed a population of 5,780. Unless the present census shows 8,000 in the city and suburbs it will be because the census is incomplete. The registered vote of the district is 1,830 and the listed vote fully 2,000. According to these figures there ought to be a population of 10,000 within three miles of the Court House. Every citizen should have local pride enough to co-operate with the enumerators in getting a full count and thereby give Hopkinsville all the advantages to be derived from an increased population.

The Republicans are resorting to figures to show that they have a chance to win in the coming election. A table has been prepared in which they claim 4,066 of the 7,100 votes registered. To make this cheerful exhibit, they claim ten precincts that gave substantial Democratic majorities two years ago and will do so again this year. They even go further and claim Bainbridge, Fruit Hill and Lafayette, Democratic districts, and concede the Democratic stronghold of Wilson by only 13 votes. There are some funny things in every canvass and these figures are enough to make a horse laugh.

There are now three formally announced candidates for Attorney General. Of these Senator Jno. K. Hendrick, of Smithland, is going to be one of the most formidable. Hon. G. G. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, and Hon. Jno. S. Rhea, of Russellville, are the other two and each will have a strong local following. Unless other candidates come out, Hendrick may be set down as the winner.

We are glad to see that the Courier-Journal is disposed to correct false reports sent out from this county about the unsatisfactory workings of the registration law. In the issue of Saturday it says:

"Hopkinsville is not disappointed over the operation of the new registration law, as some correspondents have reported, unless Mr. Charlie Meacham, who is a proverbially accurate newspaper man, is mistaken in his summing up of the situation."

Just as sure as hot weather comes there will be more or less bowel complaint in this vicinity. Every person, and especially families, ought to have some reliable medicine at hand for instant use in case it is needed. A 25 or 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is just what you ought to have and all that you would need, even for the most severe and dangerous cases. It is the best, the most reliable and most successful treatment known and is pleasant to take. For sale by Buckner Leavell.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION. The voters of Kentucky will be called upon at the next August election to select delegates to a convention to revise, alter and amend the present Constitution of Kentucky, and so important a matter should be thoroughly discussed, both through the press and on the rostrum, so that the delegates selected may be enlightened as to the wishes of the people.

We are now living under the third Constitution. The first was formed at Danville, Ky., in 1792. Samuel McDowell was president of that convention, which was composed of delegates representing only nine counties, which was the number of counties then in the State.

By the provisions of that Constitution, a vote was to be taken in the years 1797 and 1798 as to calling another convention to revise or amend that Constitution. The vote cast in those years was in favor of calling another convention and accordingly a second convention was held in 1799 at Frankfort, Ky., which in the meantime had been selected as the seat of government. The State was then composed of 25 counties, and Alexander S. Bullitt was president of that convention. This, the second Constitution of Kentucky, remained in force from the 17th day of August, 1799, to the 11th day of June, 1850, at which time the present or third Constitution was adopted. Jas. Guthrie, of Louisville, was president of the last convention, and the State was then composed of 106 counties. Only three of the delegates to this convention are now living, viz: David Meriwether, of Jefferson county; Willis B. Machen, of Lyon county, and John D. Morris, of Christian county.

With the provisions of this our present Constitution every intelligent voter is presumed to be familiar, and having solemnly determined at two successive elections that this Constitution should be revised and altered so as to better represent, after a lapse of 40 years, the changed condition and sentiment of the people, some reasons must exist for this call. The writer was a voter at the election held in 1849 for delegates to the convention which met in October of that year. Christian county was thoroughly canvassed by men of ability, and the reasons and necessity of a change in the organic law of the State were explained and urged upon the voters by the various candidates seeking the honor of a seat in that body, and we will suggest that it is a singular fact that up to this time but little has been said by either the press or candidates as to the changes that should now be made, and in order to provoke a discussion of these important matters, is the prime object of this communication. And with your permission the writer may in future communications present some of the reasons that have influenced him to favor a call of the convention.

CITIZEN. A piece of belated literary news of especial interest to those engaged in teaching or interested in educational affairs is that of the award of a medal to an American educational journal at the Paris Exposition. The paper thus distinguished is The Teacher, published at 39 West 14th street, New York, and the distinction is well merited, as The Teacher is one of the very few journals devoted purely to the work of advancing the cause of education and raising its ministers to a rightful professional dignity, and it is undoubtedly the highest of its class. It is published monthly at only $1.00 a year; single copies, ten cents.

GENERAL BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

The General Association of Kentucky Baptists met at Owensboro Thursday with 132 messengers present and a large number of visitors. Dr. J. S. Coleman was elected moderator; T. C. Bell and A. C. Davidson, assistant moderators; B. W. D. Seelye, secretary and W. J. E. Cox, assistant secretary.

The routine business of the Association occupied the first two days and much discussion was indulged in. Extracts from the proceedings having a local interest are here given, taken from the Messenger:

"The Christian experience of Rev. J. G. Dunham, of Bowling Green, the oldest ordained minister, and of Rev. J. O. Rust, the youngest minister, were listened to with great interest. Rev. Mr. Dunham was converted February 11, 1838, and had seen a continuous service in the ministry for more than fifty years. Rev. Mr. Rust was ordained a year ago. His experience as a Christian and preacher was related in a style charming in its simple eloquence and touching in its record of trials, temptations and final triumphs.

On motion of Dr. J. S. Coleman it was ordered that an obituary notice of Dr. J. W. Rust, late president of Bethel Female College, be prepared and inserted among the obituaries of deceased ministers of the association. Dr. Rust was not a minister, but had been so closely connected with the work of the ministry during his long and useful life that it was deemed appropriate. The obituary is an eloquent tribute to his memory and recites that for fifty-three years he stood a man among men as a Christian teacher, a wise counsellor and a vigorous journalist. His loss is deeply deplored by the association."

Rev. C. H. Nash was accorded the prominence in the Association to which his talents entitle him. He was made chairman of the important standing committees, on Home Missions and Religious Periodicals and was given for discussion at the next meeting the theme "What is the Weakness of the Pulpit of the Day?" On Sunday at 11 a. m. he preached at the Walnut Street Baptist church.

Rev. Jno. D. Jordan, the gifted young pastor of the Paducah church, and clerk of the Little River Association, preached at the Christian church Sunday morning.

The Inquirer pays this handsome compliment to Mr. Rust: "Rev. John O. Rust, though the youngest member of the Association, has but few equals as a speaker. He has a splendid delivery."

The Hopkinsville representatives present were Rev. C. H. Nash, Rev. J. O. Rust, Maj. J. O. Ferrell and Messrs. Bailey Waller and J. H. Anderson. They were expected to return last night or this morning.

The project to build a monument to Grant and Lee, surmounted by equestrian statues, on the summit of the mountain at Cumberland Gap, where Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia come together, is meeting with much favor. The plan is to raise the money by popular subscription and already $26,000 has been subscribed. The Middleborough News is doing good work towards making the project a success.

According to the confession of the party organ, 300 of the alleged Republican majority has already disappeared in the light of the registration figures and the rest of it is only saved by claiming 1,146 of the 1,300 white majority of the county and five hundred more votes than any Republican ever polled in the past. Not only this, but they claim the colored Democrats also in their calculations. In fact they claim the earth, as usual, and the fullness thereof.

CHAMBERLAIN'S Eye and Skin Ointment.

A certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetters, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairie Scratches, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatment had failed. 25 and 50 cent boxes for sale by Buckner Leavell.

The following item, clipped from the Ft. Madison (Iowa) Democrat, contains information well worth remembering: "Mr. John Roth, of this city, who met with an accident a few days ago spraining and bruising his leg and arm quite severely, was cured by one 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's 'Pain Balm.' This remedy is without an equal for sprains and bruises and should have a place in every household. For sale by Buckner Leavell."

Hon. W. W. Dickerson was elected Saturday by the usual Democratic majority to succeed Mr. Carlisle in the Sixth Kentucky district. He will hardly take his seat before the fight for the full term will begin. Col. Berry and Theodore Hallam will probably both be candidates again for the nomination.

The souvenir edition of the Harrodsburg Democrat, issued last week, is the handsomest Kentucky paper that has ever come to our exchange. The elaborate illustrations and excellent "write ups" are bound to do Harrodsburg a great deal of good, if judicious advertising counts for anything.

Subscribe for the KENTUCKIAN and keep yourself posted in current events.

Little Willie—Mamma, does the sun go to bed night? Mother—I've a couple that don't.—Plunder.

NOTES ON WITCHORAFF.

Discovery of documents, pertaining to the evil days of 1692.

How more remarkable discoveries of ancient documents have been made in this country than that reported the other day from Salem, where the original papers relating to the witchcraft delusion are said to have been found in a vault utilized for the storage of county records. It would be hardly possible to mention any one episode so fresh in the history of New England as belongs to the rise and decline of that fearful excitement in Salem—or, more accurately speaking, in what is now Danvers Center—which caused nineteen innocent people to be put to death under sentence for an impossible crime. The remarkable story of newly-discovered documents pertaining to the evil days of 1692 will awaken, for a time, particularly, the interest in the whole subject. There is one fact, not wholly unknown, but generally unnoticed, that bears weightily on the still mooted question how far the honor of our Puritan ancestry is affected by that episode. It is that when the delusion had spent its force, the attempt was made out of the scanty public treasury of those days to recompense the surviving victims, as far as money could do so, for the wrong done them. There is said to have been found a list of those who were in the prison when the tide of public sentiment turned toward better things, together with a record of sums ranging from $30 to $50 paid to the released captives or to the dependent relatives of those who had perished on the gibbet. This indicates what authentic history confirms, that our forefathers in the Massachusetts Bay colony were so far from being obstinate, persistent and heartless in their error, that they soon repented and sought to do what they might atone for it. In the same connection may always be taken another fact, if we would do even-handed justice to the memory of the dead. Belief in witchcraft was practically universal in the seventeenth century throughout the civilized world, and had been for many generations. Just two hundred years before the outbreak in Salem a Papal bull had kindled inquisitorial fires in Germany for the detection of sorcerers, and successive bulls incessantly denounced popular frenzy; so that many hundreds of helpless victims were put to death, often by means of cruel tortures, during a comparatively few years. But no sect or section of the Christian world was exempt, and Protestant England, under Elizabeth, James I., and Charles I., was the scene of cruel persecutions for this cause. Historians tell us that fully three thousand people are believed to have perished under charge of witchcraft during the period of the Long Parliament, that is to say, at the very time when the seeds of civil and religious liberty were being planted in old England and New England.—Boston Advertiser.

Another case entirely. Judge—James Ricketts, there is a charge of fighting against you. Don't you remember that scriptural advice, if a man strike you on the right cheek to turn the left to him also? Prisoner—Yes, yer honor, but Bill Symmes he hit me left cheek first.—Judge.

DR. ACKER'S ENGLISH PILLS. Are active, effective and pure. For sick headache, disordered stomach, biliousness, they have never been equalled either in America or abroad.

FREE.

A Clock.
A Doll.
A Lamp.
A Watch.
A Watch Chain.
A Gold Pin.
A Ring.
A Stamping outfit.

HOW?

Write for terms for Clubs to:

The Home Magazine,

Conducted by

MRS. LOGAN,

Address:

The BROSCH PUBLISHING CO.,

Washington, D. C.

Dr. W. P. Lawrence,

Physician & Surgeon,

CLARKSVILLE, TENN.,

Box 259.

DISEASES OF THE

EYE, EAR NOSE,

THROAT AND

CHRONIC DIS-

EASES

A SPECIALTY.

THE LADIES' FAVORITE

NEW HOME

THE FINEST

WOODWORK "CO." ATTACHMENTS

NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE ORANGE-SERIES

CHICAGO, ILL. 28 UNION SQUARE, N.Y.

ST. LOUIS, MO. FOR SALE BY DALLAS, TEX.

C. E. WEST, Agent.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

ALSO ROAD CARS.

WALTER A. WOOD

SINGLE APRON

OPEN REAR

BINDERS.

DIRECT DRAFT

FLOATING BAR

MOWERS.

SELF AND

HAND DUMP

RAKES

CHANGEABLE FOR TWO HORSE TEAM

WALTER A. WOOD

MACHINES

CONTAINING ALL HIS LATEST AND BEST

IMPROVED FEATURES

AT OUR PLACE OF BUSINESS

FOR SALE BY

W. B. MASON, - - - HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

N. TOBIN & CO.,

Merchant

Tailors,

OPERA BUILDING,

Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

Special Attention Given to Orders from a Distance.

Parties needing anything in their line would do well to call and see their stock before purchasing elsewhere.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

SA. FRANCISCO, CAL.

LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

Now we do know something

ABOUT

TEAS.

8 VARIETIES

FROM

25c.

TO

$1.00

PER POUND

AT

NOURSE & MONRE'S,

POSTOFFICE BLOCK.

T T T

Stop! Read!

What we have to say about our

Spring and Summer Clothing

that is coming in daily. It is cheaper than ever, and a man who cannot afford to dress well when clothing is as cheap as it is, now being sold by us, is no man, and when we tell you that you can buy a fine suit of clothes for $3.00 we mean it, and it is a bargain. When we tell you of the largest lot of Clothing and Shoes we bought at a forced bankruptcy sale at 50 cents on the dollar, they are all genuine bargains, for we are selling them cheaper than other merchants can buy them. We invite you to call and examine our immense stock of Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods, and believe you can save money by doing so. Below we give you an idea of our low prices:

Child's suit	$ 85	6 doz. pair of men and boys buff, lace, button or gaiter shoes, good at $1.50 will be closed out at	$1.00
Boys' and youths' suits $1.00 to 3.00	3.00
" " all-wool suits	4.00
Mens' suits from $3 up.		A job lot of plain and box too brogan shoes, full stock, standard sewed or pegged bottom, sold everywhere at $1.25 and $1.50, will be closed out at	1.00
Boys' and mens' 4 ply linen collars, standing and lay down, late styles	71c
Four ply linen cuffs	11c
Soiled white laundried shirts	50c	A job lot of mens' fine suspenders worth $1.00 will be sold for	25c
CELLULOSE COLLARS	5c
" CUFFS	10c	Mens' light colored stiff hats, good style	75c
Mens' fine black half hose, fast colors guaranteed	25c	Black stiff	1.00
Mens' fine bulbriggan seamless half hose valued at 20 cents,	10c	Better goods, non breakable, latest styles and novelties in stiff hats from $2.00 up.

We are the only agents for the Plymouth Rock Pant Co., the cheapest tailoring house in the East, makes pants to order at $3; Suits at $14, fits guaranteed. Terms strictly cash

PYE, DICKEN & WALL.

Clarksville Liquor Store!

S. Baer & Co., Prop's.

DEALER IN

Whiskies, Wines, Brandies, Gins, Etc., Etc.

We carry a complete stock of Cigars, Tobaccos, Pipes, Etc. Sole agents for Sach-Predens Ales, A. T. 3, and Alf and Alf, A. L. Dunlaps & Co's Tobaccos and Crescent Brewing Co's Celebrated Beers. Give us a call. ORDERS BY MAIL GIVEN PROMPT ATTENTION.

Sign--Big Black Bear.

CLARKSVILLE - - - TENN.

THOS. HERNDON. TOM. P. MAJOR.

HERNDON & MAJOR,

—PROPRIETORS—

Grange Tobacco Warehouse,

Clarksville, Tennessee.

Special Attention to Sampling & Selling Tobacco.

Liberal Advances Made on Consignments.

ROBT. B. WITHERS, - - - TRAVELING SOLICITOR.

W. D. MERIWETHER, JOE K. GANT. FOUR MONTHS FREE STORAGE. C. NICK MERIWETHER, C. & MERIWETHER.

Banner Tobacco Warehouse.

Meriwether & Gant, Clarksville, Tenn.

WE SOLICIT A SHARE OF YOUR BUSINESS. All Tobacco Insured unless Instructed in writing. Liberal Advances on Tobacco in Store.

A Practical Business College. No Side Issues. Thirty years Business man at the head. Business from the word go. Young Men and Women thoroughly fitted for business life. One thousand dollars gained at small outlay. Satisfaction guaranteed to the students who mean business. School open all the year. Prof. Currier's splendid new interest methods taught free to students. Don't delay but enter at once and get ready for grand opportunities. References, thousands of graduates making a success of life.

S. N. CURNICK, Principal,

221 Main Street, EVANSVILLE, IND.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Miss Mary Gant has returned from Clarksville.

Esq. T. H. Major is at home for the rest of the month.

Mr. W. A. Glass is up from a severe spell of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Campbell, of Louisville, are in town.

Miss Fairmine Shanklin is home from a visit to Trenton.

Mrs. N. B. Shyer, of Nashville, is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Harriet Gold, of Sedalia, Mo., is visiting Mrs. G. D. Dalton.

Mrs. Judge C. Bennett of Frankfort, will spend the summer at Cerulean.

Mr. E. B. Bassett and family left this morning for a two weeks visit to relatives in Louisville.

Walker Wood and Henry Tandy left this morning for Winchester to attend the Press Convention.

Mrs. M. C. Vickers and daughter returned home to New Albany Saturday, after a visit to Mrs. W. P. Winfree.

Dr. A. L. Butt, of Logan county, was here last week looking for a location to practice medicine. He makes a specialty of eye and throat diseases.

Mr. Chas. S. Green, of Louisville, Democratic candidate for Auditor, is visiting his relatives here and mingling with his many friends in Christian, his old home.

Mrs. J. I. Landes and Miss Anna returned from Columbus, Ohio, last Friday, accompanied by Miss Mary Kelly, who has been attending school there for the past two years.

The Great Benefit

Which people in a run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purifies the blood, and assists to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

CERULEAN AS OF OLD.

The Opening Ball a Grand Success—Indications Point to a Prosperous Season.

The announcement of the opening ball on the night of the 20th was received by the young people of the adjoining cities with expressions of gladness, as well as by the regular guests of the hotel, and the weather being all that could be desired, consequently Cerulean was filled with young people from Louisville, Nashville, Hopkinsville, Princeton, Cadiz and other places, who packed the ball room with a happy throng, who lingered until a late hour to catch the last sweet sound of the music, and move with graceful action to each beat.

The assemblage of young people was one of elegance and refinement, and the ball room presented a scene of delightful indeed to the spectators, who seemed to enjoy the evening as much as the participants. The music was made by Mike's band, which has delighted the guests for several seasons with music not to be excelled.

The hotel has been open for the reception of guests since May 16th, and has been gradually filling. Among some of the regular guests are found the names of Mr. Robert Fletcher and wife and daughters, Misses Carrie Emma and Mary, of Louisville; Mr. W. B. Anderson and wife, Frank S. Beaumont and wife, Dr. N. S. Carney and wife, of Clarksville; Dr. Wm. R. Smith, of Cairo; D. L. Grinter and wife, Cadiz. Quite a number of arrivals are expected this week, and this season will flourish from now on to the close.

A dance was given Saturday evening, which almost equaled the Friday ball.

It is conceded to be a fact by those who have traveled a great deal and visited many resorts that Cerulean water has but few equals as a health restorer and upbuilder of a broken constitution. Some of the most wonderful cures have been perfected here that have been brought to notice. Still no flourish of trumpets has been made. A visitor at Cerulean is offered this health restorer; invited to a table that cannot be excelled anywhere for profusion, variety and preparation; is given the benefit of inviting shades and pleasant retreats and associates with people of cultivation and prominence. What more could you ask or expect? The water is especially strong now, and fortifies you with an appetite that is hard to satisfy.

Mr. W. A. Wilgus and wife, Misses Mary Green and Blanche Keene, accompanied by Messrs. Riley, Ely and Will Hopper, spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday here.

Bob Woodbridge and Webb Bell came down Sunday morning and brought the late telegrams.

Don't wait until the warm weather causes you a spell of sickness, but pack your "Santogal" and come where years of extension will be given to life.

Z.

Hon. W. V. Lucas, Ex-State Auditor of Iowa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and have no hesitation in saying it is an excellent remedy. I believe it is all that is claimed for it. Persons afflicted by a cough or cold will find it a friend." There is no danger from whooping cough when this remedy is freely given. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavell.

HERE AND THERE.

Vitalia Liver Pills cure biliousness. Mr. W. L. Waller has a very sick child.

Plenty of bugs for grapes at this office.

The Medical Club met at Dr. Sittes' office Friday night.

The biggest crop of blackberries for several years is now on the vines.

The usual Monday crowd in town was smaller than common yesterday.

Barring the intolerable heat, the farmers have had good weather for harvest.

Mr. A. S. Tribble will leave for Danville to-morrow with a car load of fine cattle.

An even lot of $200 on the Sheriff's race was made Friday, and another of $250 yesterday.

Born, to the wife of Henry H. Bryant, a 14-pound boy Saturday—just in time for the census.

Georgia watermelons are in the market and early peaches, apples, etc., are beginning to appear.

Work has been begun on the foundation of Mr. E. M. Plack's new residence on South Main.

Found, bunch of 7 keys on Frankel shoe-boutoner ring. Call and get them and pay for this notice.

Mrs. Mattie Rust has bought the Rossington cottage on South Main and will occupy it in the near future.

Election fights are opening up early. The first of the season occurred Saturday night, Bill Witty being the assaulted party.

John Katterjohn, a young druggist of Henderson, was killed while jumping from a moving train in that city one day last week.

Purify your blood with Dr. P. T. Rogers' Ideal Alternative, sanctioned by physicians of Hopkinsville. For sale only by Rogers & Elgin.

J. M. Hopkins has had the recent sale of his livery stable set aside, on the ground that it did not bring its value, and a new sale will be ordered.

Mr. A. A. Metz has purchased the lot on South Main street just north of Major Breathitt's and will build on same at once. The price paid was $1,500.

"The Bassetts," a base ball nine, composed of the best players of the city, and but recently organized, are itching to cross bats with a club from any of our neighboring cities.

Prof. James E. Seobey has tendered his resignation as president of South Kentucky College. A meeting will be held this week when a faculty will be organized and another president elected.

The sixth ball of the Gracey Dancing Club, organized several years ago, will be held on Tuesday evening, July 8. A large number of invitations will be issued and every effort made to make the affair a success.

The thermometers registered from 93 to 96 in the shade Sunday and but little church going was indulged in. Only a few of the churches held services and the attendance at those was very small.

Dr. Clardy, candidate for Delegate to the Constitutional Convention opened his campaign at Concord Church Saturday. A good crowd was present and listened to his speech. Neither of his opponents was present.

A negro man who was operating an Osborne machine at Mr. John C. Willis' last week had a needle stuck through his hand, breaking one of the bones and otherwise lacerating it. Dr. Thomas dressed the wound and the man was getting along well at last accounts.

The Latham Light Guards is an organization of which Hopkinsville should feel very proud. Interest is increasing among the boys and a company of well drilled men is ever ready to serve you when needed.

In view of the coming encampment the boys are drilling with a determination to make a fine appearance. The gold medal is competed for the first Tuesday night of every month. Go to their armory and see them drill, they will be glad to see you.

Many of the candidates went to the bran-dance at Bluff Spring School House, in Wilson's district, Saturday. But the crowd was small and the affair a disappointment to those who expected to meet all Pond River in a lump. The day was warm and dinner rather scarce and high-priced. The place is about 18 miles from town and some of the road is very rough. A few buggies made the trip, but most of the city contingent went horseback. The day was characterized by no disorder, although it was evident that a blind tiger had its lair somewhere near by.

The N. M. & M. V. railroad has made a change in its time card. The mail and express train west leaves Louisville at 12:30 p. m., passes Central City at 5:30 p. m., and arrives at Paducah at 12:30 a. m. The mail and express east leaves Paducah at 12:05 p. m., passes Central City at 6:35 p. m., and arrives at Louisville at 11:35 p. m. The limited train west leaves Louisville at 11:25 p. m., passes Central City at 4:10 a. m., and arrives at Paducah at 10:30 a. m. The limited train east leaves Paducah at 8:45 p. m., passes Central City at 2:30 a. m., and arrives at Louisville at 7:30 a. m. The Central City accommodation leaves at 1:10 p. m., and arrives at Louisville at 6:05 p. m. Returning this train leaves Louisville at 7:30 a. m., and arrives at Central City at 12:25 p. m.—Messenger.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Attempted Burglaries.

An unsuccessful attempt to burglarize Mr. Ben Underwood's house was made about midnight Friday night last. Also on the following night an attempt was made to enter Mr. Ed. Price's dwelling. In both cases the would-be burglars were frightened off and did not return.

Ninety-Eight in the Shade.

The first hot wave of the season arrived Sunday and showed the heated mercury up near the hundred notch. Some thermometers registered as high as 99, but 94 was the highest in cool places. Sunday night was oppressively hot and marked 84 at bed-time. Yesterday was still hotter and at 2 p. m. the most reliable thermometer in town indicated 98 degrees, the hottest day for two years.

New Teachers.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Colored Public School, held June 17th, 1900, the following teachers were re-elected: Prof. A. H. Payne, Principal. J. J. Fleming. Mrs. Nora L. Payne. Miss Rosa E. Morgan. Miss Anna L. Watt. Mrs. Lottie E. Young. The session will begin Monday, Sept. 1.

Assaulted With a Tea cup.

W. L. Bradley was tried yesterday before Esq. T. C. Tinsley on a charge of assaulting and striking his wife with a tea cup. Mrs. Bradley's head was badly cut. A jury of six, after hearing the testimony, retired to their room and in a short while brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the fine at $15. Bradley gave bond for the payment of the amount, including $8 costs, the first day of July, and was released.

Chloroformed and Robbed.

About 3 o'clock Sunday morning last Dr. A. P. Campbell awoke and made the discovery that he had been robbed during the night. The burglar entered the house through the transom over the front door and secured a fine gold watch and chain, about $5 in cash and ransacked the house in search of other valuables. Dr. Campbell is sure that the burglar on entering administered chloroform to him and also his wife, as they both remained unconscious for an hour after the thief had left. Neighbors heard the noise about 2 o'clock, when the entrance was effected, but thought nothing further of the matter.

Troublesome Tramps.

Effie and Ella Adams, two female tramps, were arrested six miles from the city on the Princeton pike Saturday, by Deputy Sheriff Mat S. Major, on a warrant charging them with larceny in taking clothing and other valuables from Mary E. Hoey, who lives on the Fairview pike, a few miles east of the city.

Yesterday they were brought before Judge Brasher. Mrs. Hoey identified all of her missing clothing, which was found in the prisoners' possession. She also recovered $1.10 in silver; found in her purse, which they had also taken. Other proof was introduced showing that they had also stopped at other houses near Mrs. Hoey's, and in the absence of the owners had taken other articles of less value. Judge Brasher held them over until Circuit Court on a charge of petit larceny. They were taken to jail where they only remained a few minutes when they demanded an immediate trial before county Judge Winfree, which was granted them. They were given thirty days each in the work house and taken immediately to that institution. When questioned closely they gave Bowling Green as their home and said they were "on their way south," an old gag.

MATRIMONIAL.

Miss Rose Farwell, youngest daughter of Senator Farwell, of Illinois, was married at Chicago Thursday to Herbert C. Taylor, of the same city.

Courier-Journal: A marriage, flavored with a business romance, took place near Elkton Tuesday night, in the marital union of J. F. Greenfield and Mrs. Belle Keeling. The groom was too busy in his harvest to spare any time during the day, so he took night for it. Riding some half dozen miles to Elkton after supper, and reaching there at 10 o'clock, he at once proceeded to awake the clerk, and upon obtaining the necessary papers, started for home with the promise to be married by 12 o'clock that night, and go to work as usual on the following morning.

LEMON ELIXIR.

A Pleasant Lemon Drink.

For biliousness and constipation, take Lemon Elixir.

For indigestion and foul stomach, take Lemon Elixir.

For sick and nervous headaches, take Lemon Elixir.

For sleeplessness and nervousness, take Lemon Elixir.

For loss of appetite and debility, take Lemon Elixir.

For fevers, chills and malaria, take Lemon Elixir.

Lemon Elixir will not fail you in any of the above diseases, all of which arise from a torpid or disordered liver, stomach, kidneys, bowels or blood.

Prepared only by Dr. H. H. Moyley, Atlanta, Ga. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

A Prominent Minister Writes.

After ten years of great suffering from indigestion, with great nervous prostration, biliousness, disordered kidneys and constipation, I have been cured by Dr. Moyley's Lemon Elixir, and am now a well man.

Rev. C. C. Davis, Eld. M. E. Church South, No. 28 Tenth St., Atlanta, Ga.

CAGKY.

Casky, Ky. June 22.—Miss Mary Warfield went to the picnic at Red River Bridge Saturday.

Miss Mary Kelley is expected home from Columbus Ohio to-day.

Messrs. J. P. Gray and J. W. Kendall of Guthrie, are visiting Rev. Jno. G. Kendall here.

Mrs. S. E. Lloyd spent Thursday in Hopkinsville with Mrs. F. M. Whitlow.

Miss Katie Graham has returned from a visit to relatives in South Christian.

Rev. B. F. Orr preached at Pleasant Grove Sunday afternoon, June 16th.

Will Kendall, census enumerator, has about finished the work in this district.

Wheat buyers from abroad have already made their appearance in this vicinity and prices rule higher than at this time last year.

Capt. Donaldson of Texas was the guest of Mr. R. F. Rives Tuesday last.

Geo. W. Winfree and Tom Turner made a business trip to Eddyville last week.

Jerry Bronaugh, a prominent colored man here was badly bitten by a dog Tuesday last.

S. L. Frogge, candidate for Supt. of Schools, this county, passed through this place Monday on a prospecting trip.

Misses Florence Rives and Mary Henry returned Friday night from Bowling Green for vacation.

Mr. Sam Taliaferro, of Guthrie, was the guest of Jack Warfield at "Waldemore" Friday.

Passenger train No. 51 struck and crippled a fine Jersey cow at the Bradshaw crossing Friday.

According to the various notices posted up, Casky will soon have a larger beer saloon in full blast.

The team attached to a mower on Mr. Rives' place Friday became frightened and ran away, throwing off the driver, but not hurting him. The mower was broken.

Geo. Leavell is establishing a new town on his property near Longview. A store building is being erected, which will be occupied by J. N. Warfield, and a church and school house will soon be built. The new town will be named Bolivar, in honor of our own Simon Bolivar Buckner. "Here's hopin'."

SALLIE.

The worst cases of scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases of the blood are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

FULL OF FUN.

"Ma, the minister is coming."

"What makes you think so? Did you see him?" "No; but I saw a parrot and lock it up in the stable."—N. Y. Sun.

"The Frenchman says: 'When I start out in search of a lecture I'm going to Havre.'—Rocheester Post.

"Angelina (to Tweezer, who has just proposed): 'Oh, I don't want to marry you; you ain't got but one eye!'" Tweezer: "I know it; if I'd 'a' had two I'd 'a' looked fatter!"—Harvard Lampoon.

A bankrupt banker had just made out his schedule of assets. "But what will you say when you meet your creditors?" asked a friend. "Oh, I shan't meet them; they travel on foot, while I always take a cab!"—Judge.

"Landlord, 'Janitor, I hear a baby crying. I told you to put no rooms in this flat to people with children." Janitor: "That 'un was born here." Landlord: "Strange! These people must have known my rules were inflexible."—Pioneer Press.

"What is more awful to contemplate, a sad lot, or to see a man playing at him," than the relentless power of a maelstrom?" And a hunched-looking man in the rear of the building softly replied: "The female-strom."—N. Y. Ledger.

Peroration of Lawyer:—"And now, gentlemen of the jury, I beg you to observe that my client committed this crime while entirely sober, from which fact you can not help perceiving that he is a perfectly temperate man."—Filingdon Blatter.

The Rev. Ephraim Klinka:—"An't no bedden, wot or melan?" Congregation (rising as one man):—"Wot dat you say?" Rev. Ephraim Klinka:—"Melanoholy right to see de world vallerin' in sin!" Congregation (in disappointed chorus):—"Sho!"—Munsey's Weekly.

Young Hopeful:—"Say, pa, you must be a pretty strong man." Father:—"Tolerably so, my son; tolerably so. What makes you think so?" Young Hopeful:—"Cause uncle John said he went out with the other night and you could catch the biggest load of any man he ever saw without showing it."—American Commercial Traveler.

Young Miss Wilgus:—"Where are you going, papa?" Rev. Mr. Wilgus:—"To the temperance meeting. We intend to inaugurate a movement to save the young men of the country." Young Miss Wilgus:—"Try and save a real nice one for me, will you, papa, dear?"—Rehoboth Herald.

"How the world was made" is being discussed in a scientific magazine. We know. They got all the cash subventions along the line they could, then bonded so much as they could build with that money for all the rest of us, watered the stock like a deluge and rushed it through before any body could get out an injunction. Then the English came along and got hold of it, as usual.—Brooklyn Eagle.

"Life Insurance Agent (out West):—"What did Mr. Newcomer say?" Assistant:—"He wouldn't talk with me at all; he said he was too busy to think about life insurance." "Well, I'll hang around his house to-night and shoot holes through his windows, and when he comes down town in the morning you be behind a fence in some vacant lot and put a few balls through the top of his hat. Then when he reaches his office I'll drop in and take life insurance again!"—N. Y. Weekly.

I use Smith's Tonic Syrup in my practice, and am determined to use it so long as it gives such excellent satisfaction in cases of chills and fever."

John P. Mushat, Calhoun, Ala.

GRAND MILLINERY SLAUGHTER!

Commencing June 16th I will close out all my millinery at prices unheard of before. Miss Maude Kirkpatrick leaves for the East next month. Those wishing hats trimmed by an experienced trimmer will please call before July 6th.

10 boxes new french samples of Flowers and Wreaths worth $1.00 go at 25c. each.

20 French Pattern Hats at Half price.

15 doz. English Sailors, worth 25c, go at 13c.

Down stairs in my Dress Goods Department you will find lots of genuine bargains. All summer goods marked down.

A large lot of White Goods worth 15c to 20c a yard, go in this sale at 5c and 10c.

A. A. METZ, "Leader and Controller of Low Prices."

DEATHS.

Dr. John L. Trice died at his home in Cadiz last Thursday, of asthma, aged about 55 years. Deceased had been entirely blind for twenty-five years. He leaves a wife and four children.

COLORED.

Infant of Green Moore, eight miles north of the city, Saturday.

Nancy Mason, an Asylum patient, Saturday, aged 19 years.

Eight-year-old daughter of Nancy Bradley, in the city Saturday, of fever.

IF YOUR BACK ACHES—If you will not cut, really good for nothing is in the market. Try PRONTO'S BACK KICKER. It will cure you, and give a good appetite. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

NOTICE!

The undersigned surviving partners of Chas. McKee & Co., will sell for sixty days, the stock of groceries now in store, on which for CASH great BARGAINS CAN be procured. Accounts made to this date are required to be paid on presentation when due, otherwise they will be placed in the hands of proper persons for collection. A. R. McKee, June 1, 1890. W. N. McKee.

Paint your house with Peasley, Gault & Co's. mixed Paint sold on a positive guarantee by Wyly & Burnett.

Dividend No. 8.

The Board of Directors of the Crescent Milling Co. have declared a dividend of 3 per cent. for the six months ending May 31, 1890, and payable July 1, 1890.

June 5, 90. R. H. DeTREVILLE, Sec. and Treasr.

Logging Teams Wanted.

Will make contract for six months for two good cattle teams. Also stand for good blacksmiths with tools.

MORAE & MCCOY, Kelly, Ky.

Lace Curtains laundered for 50c. per pair. Counterpanes 25c each at Metcalfe's Hopkinsville Steam Laundry.

FOR SALE OR TRADE.

"New Home" sewing machine, $45. "New National" sewing machine, 40. Martin improved repeating rifle. 27. Lovell washing machine. 5. These articles are all new. Will sell them at a bargain or trade other useful articles of equal value. Apply at KENTUCKIAN office.

Use Anderson's Electric Prophylactic, a sure preventative and cure for Gapes and Cholera, in chickens. Over a hundred bottles sold in Hopkinsville and not one returned. Sold, no cure no pay, by G. E. Gaither.

Hotel For Sale.

A good house in Trenton, Ky., well located, and known as the "Cabaniss House" for sale at a bargain. Call on or address J. C. Dreyer, 5-20-90, lmo.

Taken up as a Stray.

By J. L. Ward, in Christian county, Ky., May 18th, 1890, living six miles northwest of Hopkinsville on the Frank Campbell farm, one grish came along and got hold of it, as usual.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Life Insurance Agent (out West):—"What did Mr. Newcomer say?" Assistant:—"He wouldn't talk with me at all; he said he was too busy to think about life insurance." "Well, I'll hang around his house to-night and shoot holes through his windows, and when he comes down town in the morning you be behind a fence in some vacant lot and put a few balls through the top of his hat. Then when he reaches his office I'll drop in and take life insurance again!"—N. Y. Weekly.

I use Smith's Tonic Syrup in my practice, and am determined to use it so long as it gives such excellent satisfaction in cases of chills and fever."

John P. Mushat, Calhoun, Ala.

DRUGS.

Our stock of Oils, Paints and Varnishes, School Books and stationery is now complete, and we cordially invite the public to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

The H. B. Garner Drug Co.

WE ARE ADVERTISING PYLE & RENSHAW, The Furniture Dealers and Funeral Undertakers.

Up Stairs in Henry Block, HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Read our card board posters. You will see them all over the county. Every word on them is true.

WE RECOMMEND AS THE BEST LIVER MEDICINE CHILL CURE. CHEAPEST MEDICINE KNOWN. CONSIDERING QUALITY AND SIZE OF DOSE. BILIOUSNESS, DYSPEPSIA, AND GASTRIC CONSTIPATION. ROGERS & ELGIN, DRUGGISTS, Ky.

WILL LAST A LIFE TIME. Warranted 25 Years! NOT HALF THE COST OF STERLING SILVER.

SPOONS AND FORKS. HAVING STERLING SILVER. Out showing after half past six o'clock. Then PLATED ENTIRE. Guaranteed to contain more silver and are more durable than any plated or LIGHT STERLING SILVER goods made. Each article bears the Trade Mark.

—AND SOLD BY— L. Gauchat, CLARKSVILLE, TENN. Also a large stock of Sterling Silver Goods.

FOR SALE. 20 acres of fresh cleared land, good soil, about half mile south of City Point and about 100 yards West of Crabapple pond. Also 25 acres adjoining John A. Twyman's lot on South Main street. Apply to H. B. Little or the undersigned.

BANK OFFICE. ROLL TOP DESKS AND STORE FIXTURES. THE TERRY MFG CO. NASHVILLE, TENN.

PLANING MILLS, Wagon Factory, IMPLEMENT AND SEED STORE.

We wish to call the special attention of farmers to our Immense Stock of Plows, Wagons, Buggies and Seeds.

Guaranteed to be First-Class.

Blount's True-Blue Cast Steel Plows, Heilmann's Cast Steel and Chilled Plows, The Celebrated Vulcan Chilled Plows, Avery's Steel and Chilled Plows, South Bend Chilled Plows.

NOTICE! Builders' and Farmers' HARDWARE.

The world renowned Deering Giant Mowers, Binders and Reapers, cutting 5, 6 and 7 feet. The cheapest and most economical machine ever put in the field.

Climax Disc Harrows, Iron Duke Harrows, The Evans Harrows, Keystone Harrows.

Buggies, Phaetons, Spring Wagons, Road Carts.

Buggy and Wagon Harness, Saddles and Bridles, Engines, Threshers and Stackers.

White Lead, Linseed Oil, Glass and Putty, Paint Brushes, Sash, Doors, Blinds, Mouldings, Brackets, Lime, Hair, Cement and Fire Brick.

Sherwin-Williams Mixed Paints, Family Paints, Floor Paints, Etc.

We defy any implement house in the United States to beat the above line of goods, made close to home, and we keep a full stock of repairs for all.

We most cordially invite you to call and see us.

Most Respectfully,

FORBES & BRO.

THE LADIES' FEAST!

C. M. LATHAM'S

PROCLAMATION

SUMMER GOODS TREAT.

Now that the Summer is fairly upon us, and having still on hand a few Dress Goods that must be taken from my shelves, the ladies are offered a rich treat in prices. The goods are of the very best make and first-class in every way, and no one needing anything in this line should fail to call and see them.

My stock of Laces, Trimmings, Notions, Gloves, and Shoes is the best to select from in the city.

See my stock of Brussels and Ingrain Carpets, Fancy Mattings, etc. You can't fail to be pleased.

For the past liberal patronage of a generous public I extend my sincere thanks, and for the future I promise that nothing shall be left undone to retain it.

Res

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not, but like all counterfeits, they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.

BUSINESS CARDS.
DR. J. A. SOUTHALE,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
Office over First National Bank,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.
Telephone at office and residence.

Junius C. McDavitt,
DENTIST.
Office over Kelly's Jewelry Store,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

A. P. Campbell,
DENTIST,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.
OPERATING A SPECIALTY.
Office over M. Frankel's Sons.

W. W. CLARKE,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.
Office west side of Court Square.

Road Cart on WHEELS.
Ten per cent cheaper than anybody. Buggies!
Don't buy before getting our prices and catalogues.

THE GEO. W. STOCKELL CO.
Name this paper. WHEELS, TUBS
SHERWOOD HOUSE.

(Under New Management.)
T. C. BRIDWELL, PROP.
Large Sample Room. New System Call Bell.
RATES - - - $2 per day.
Special rates by the week.

Corner lot and Locust streets. Evansville, Ind.

First National Barber Shop
GRAY & YOUNG, Prop.
E. NINTH ST., NEAR MAIN.
Shaving 10c., Shampooing 10c.,
Hair Cutting 25c.

Nothing but first-class work and all done in the latest fashion. Satisfaction guaranteed.
1-1-17

TO ADVERTISERS
A list of 1,000 newspapers divided into States and sections will be sent on application.
FREE.

To those who want their advertising to pay for itself, we offer the best medium for thorough and effective work in the various sections of our Select Local List.
GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.
Newspaper advertising specialists.
110 Spruce street, New York.

McRAE & McCOY.
Manufacturers of Hardwood Lumber, White Oak, Red Oak,
WALNUT, ETC.
At Most Reasonable Rates.

KELLY, KENTUCKY.

ALL STYLES OF
BOOTS AND SHOES
MADE BY

Pat McManis.

Shoes $6 and $7.
Repairing also at REDUCED RATES.
Ninth Street, near depot.

WHAT

SCOTT'S CONSUMPTION
EMULSION
CURES
Wasting Diseases

Wonderful Flesh Producer.
Many have gained one pound per day by its use.

Scott's Emulsion is not a secret remedy. It contains the stimulating properties of the Hypophosphites and pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil, the potency of both being largely increased. It is used by Physicians all over the world.

PALATABLE AS MILK.
Sold by all Druggists.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, N.Y.

THE ORIGINAL WINE.
C. F. BROWN, Editor of the
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100

THE ORIGINAL WINE.
C. F. BROWN, Editor of the
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100

THE ORIGINAL WINE.
C. F. BROWN, Editor of the
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100

THE ORIGINAL WINE.
C. F. BROWN, Editor of the
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100

THE ORIGINAL WINE.
C. F. BROWN, Editor of the
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100

THE ORIGINAL WINE.
C. F. BROWN, Editor of the
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100
U. S. Court Reports, 100

Hopkinsville Kentucky.

TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 1890.

FULL OF FUN.

—Judge—"Prisoner do you confess your guilt?" "No, your honor, the speech of my lawyer has convinced even me of my entire innocence."—Fleegende Hlaetter.

—Spring, gentle spring, the blue bird sang,
"Behold the buds and vines—
And then it froze to death."
—Philadelphia Times.

—Wickers—"An artist friend of mine once painted a basket of fruit on the side walk so naturally that the first man who came along slipped and fell down on it." "Wickers—"It couldn't have been very natural, if the first man that came along tumbled to it."—Terre Haute Express.

—A young man was calling on a Congressman's daughter the other evening when the father appeared at the parlor door. "May I come in?" he asked, hesitatingly. "Oh, yes," she answered, "you may, but we have a quorum without you."—Washington Star.

—Where is the drawing-room? asked Mrs. Struikyo, as she looked over the architect's plans. "I thought perhaps the front and back parlors would do." "No, indeed; we must have a drawing-room for my daughter is determined to be an artist."—Harper's Bazar.

—Judge—"Prisoner at the bar, have you any thing to say before sentence is passed?" "Prisoner—"Yes, your honor. Will you please state my sentence from the time that that lunk-headed, long-winded lawyer of mine started to talk?"—Munsey's Weekly.

—Mrs. Stukupp—"I don't see why they permit Miss Singleton to keep company with that Mr. Mann. Actually I don't believe he's got a cent to his name." "Mrs. Midway—"Oh, but it isn't quite so bad as that, although, to be sure, he is a little impetuous." Mrs. Stukupp—"Oh, is that all? Well, that doesn't seem much worse than the plenty of money."—Boston Transcript.

—School Committee (Judge of a local court addicted to fault-finding) examining class in geography—"This class ought to be ashamed; you have not made any progress for months; you are just what you were last year. Ernest, where are the Rocky mountains?" Ernest (remembering the same question put the year before)—"Just where they were last year; haven't moved a bit."—Chicago Herald.

—It was on the rear platform of a street car as a crowd was going home from the theater. "Let's see," mused a man who was jammed on the railing to the one on his left, "have we been introduced?" "I think not. My name is Taylor." "Ah! and mine is Taylor." "My Taylor, you are throwing time away trying to get my watch. It is an old one and out of repair, and won't bring you two dollars."—Detroit Free Press.

—Miss Redingote—"No, Aunt Brindle, I'm not engaged. When I marry, it will be a great man." Mrs. Brindle (doubtfully)—"Well, I dunno. You can't always tell how a man will turn out. Now, there's Josiah."—Miss Redingote—"You don't mean to say Uncle Brindle has ever distinguished himself?" Mrs. Brindle—"Well, I'll tell you what he did. I sent him down to the store with a ribbon the other day and he matched it!"—Lippincott.

WOMEN AS INVENTORS.

Some of the Most Remarkable of Their Achievements.

It was a California woman who invented a baby carriage, which netted her over $50,000; while to Mrs. Catherine Greene, the wife and widow of Washington's ablest officer, is due the honor of inventing the cotton-gin, which is one of those distinctive American inventions the value and importance of which have been recognized by the whole industrial world. There is the reaper and mower, the steam engine, the cotton gin, the brain of Mrs. Ann Manning of Plainfield, N. J., to whom is also accredited a clothes-closer. Mrs. Manning seems to have stimulated the inventive genius of her neighbors, for a few years after her reaper and mower was patented, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of the same State, took out a patent for an improvement on this machine, being a device for changing the knives without stopping the wheels.

One of the most complicated machines ever made is that for the manufacture of re-enforced-bottom paper bags. It is so curiously ingenious that how it was contrived passes the ordinary comprehension. It was the invention of Miss Maggie Knight, who from it and other inventions in the same line realized a great fortune. A street-sweeper of great merit was devised and patented by a New York lady, who had a costly battle lost and won and splashed on it from a defective machine.

Most remarkable of all is the invention of Mrs. Mary B. Walton for denouncing the sound of car-wheels. She lived near the elevated railroad in New York, and was greatly annoyed by the sound of the roaring trains passing her house. The most noted mechanists and inventors of the country had given their attention to the subject without being able to furnish a solution, when lo, a woman's brain did the work, and an appliance proving perfectly successful, was adopted by the elevated roads, and she is now reaping the rewards of a happy thought.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

THE DECLINE OF ROYALTY.

A Lusignan descendant of the Kings of Jerusalem died miserably lately in a hospital in Milan. A Marquis descendant from the Doges is selling matches in the streets of Venice; in the same city a porter at one of the most splendid palaces keeps the door of the house where he ought to be master. At Naples the Duc de Lerma, grandee of Spain, is a lawyer's clerk. At Palermo the Duc de Santa Croce goes about the streets picking up cigar ends and any thing else to be found. The Princess Pignatelli is a singer in a cafe chantant in Berlin. At Buenos Ayres there is a lovely flower girl about twenty, who, when asked where she came from, replied that she was a Lombard, but that her parents were Romans of the name Pecci. The girl, whose name was Leonilda Pecci when asked if she was a relative of His Holiness, said she did not know, but in her family it was believed they were nearly akin.—N. Y. Tribune.

An Adequate Apology.

Philosopher—Good-afternoon, Mrs. De Science. Allow me to compliment you on your remarkable article in the Scientific American.

Mrs. De Fashion—You have made a mistake, sir. I am not a book-worm nor do I have to write for a living. I am Mrs. De Fashion, a rather well-known society leader—not Mrs. De Science.

Philosopher—Oh! I beg her pardon.—N. Y. Weekly.

I use Smith's Tonic Syrup in my practice, and am determined to use it as long as it gives such excellent satisfaction in cases of chills and fever.

John P. Muesel, Calhoun, Ala.

A QUAKER WEDDING.

The Knot Tied Without the Aid of a Clergyman.

A short time ago I had the pleasure of witnessing a Friend's wedding in the old meeting-house at the corner of Fifth and Race streets, Philadelphia.

To one from New England, where such affairs are not common, it was indeed a novelty. Upon entering the meeting-house, the extreme plainness and simplicity of the surroundings attracted the eyes of the stranger. Directly in front and facing the entrance are three rows of upholstered benches. There is a gallery extending around three sides of the building and containing several rows of benches, each one being much higher than the preceding one. The massive pulpit, the customary church organ, the handsome windows of cathedral glass, all these are absent, and their absence tends to give the place a tone foreign to that of the majority of religious edifices of today. After taking our seats, and before the wedding party arrive, we have an opportunity to observe our surroundings and the guests who have assembled to witness the ceremony. It is evident that the female portion of Friends' congregation do not come together to exhibit any new style of headgear, as their sisters in other denominations are often charged with doing.

Suddenly the low murmur of voices ceases, and with many a gasp or exclamation, heralded by the swelling sounds of some famous wedding march, the bride and groom, preceded by the ushers and followed by the bridesmaids and their escorts, come slowly up the aisle and take their places in the center of the front row of seats, facing the friends who have come to witness the ceremony. In the second row of seats, and directly behind the bride and groom, are seated the nearest relatives of the contracting parties. All is profound silence for a short time, then the bride and groom rise simultaneously and clasp their right hands, and the groom says: "In the presence of the Lord and these our friends, I take thee, to be my wife, promising, with Divine assistance, to be unto thee a faithful and loving husband until death shall separate us. As soon as he had finished, the bride says, in substance, the same thing, after which they resume their seats. A table is then brought in and placed before them by the ushers, on which the marriage certificate is signed. The certificate is then handed back to the nearest relative of the bride and the table removed. It is necessary that the certificate be signed by the bridesmaids and groomsmen as well. After a short period of silence the person holding the document arises and reads it aloud. After the reading it is often customary to have a sermon preached by some prominent person. Another period of silence then follows, and is closed by one of the relatives rising and asking that the guests remain seated until the bride party has passed out, which is a signal for them to do so.

The entire ceremony takes less than half an hour, and the strange solemnity of it all, together with the absence of a clergyman, gives it a rather strange appearance.—Boston Transcript.

TERROR IS EPIDEMIC.

That Is the Reason Why Cowards Deserve Exemplary Punishment.

"A plague on all cowards!" says Shakespeare's Fat Knight, himself the best of cowards. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

It can not be fairly imputed to the dastard as a crime that his nerves quiver like aspen leaves when he hears the immediate bullet whizzing by, or that the sight of sheathless steel makes the perspiration start from all his pores. He is not a coward, but a man of flesh and blood, and it is his right to be afraid. But it is just to cowards in general, and cowardice? Would any man be chicken-hearted if he could be otherwise? Does not every frightened fugitive from danger blush as he runs?

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, of Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse.

He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as ever was.—Free trial bottles of the Great Discovery at H. B. Garner's Pharmacy, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, postmaster at Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver troubles." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made since I feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same place, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at H. B. Garner's City Pharmacy."

A WOMAN ARCHITECT.

How an Enterprising Philadelphia Lady Made a Name for Herself.

"Minerva Parker, Architect and Designer," is the inscription on a neat sign on South Broad street. In a very tidy room on the third floor Miss Parker was found, planning a reform dress. She is a decidedly pretty young lady, with very black hair and eyes, which, with her dark complexion, form a very vivid contrast with her even, white teeth.

"I am the only lady architect in Philadelphia," she said. "I know of only two other ladies engaged in the profession. They are located at Rochester, N. Y., and have a large clientele, which I am sure they will be able to maintain. I have the same annoyances and troubles that other architects have to endure. I am pestered by the man who wants his hinges, locks, grates and dear old knows what, stipulated in the specifications for which, of course, he is willing to allow me a percentage ranging anywhere from five to forty per cent of the cost. I have but few lady clients, and rather prefer serving them, as they generally know just about what they want. I superintend the construction of all the buildings I design, and furnish every detail of the interior decorations. I don't mind walking over scaffolding a bit, but I certainly draw the line on ladders. I have thought seriously of adopting a reform dress, but I don't like notoriety and have persistently avoided it, preferring that my work should be my advertisement. I am now engaged upon the plans for a railroad bridge, a number of small dwellings, and a stable. I am in love with my profession, and can say that it has proven one of profit and pleasure."—Philadelphia Record.

"The variations of the British nobleman are limitless. One has just taken out a license as a bar-keeper, and another has won a bride as a laborer."

Brother—I always take a great deal of pains buying my shoes, Jack, do you?

Jack—No, I take mine afterwards.

WHAT IS

SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, eyes, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption, and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How CAN IT BE CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of those cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofula from birth, and when she was only old she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them grew to the size of a pigeon's egg, became running sores for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lumps and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLISLE, Naughton, N. J.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Sold in all druggists. 50c. per bottle. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.
100 Doses One Dollar

TO MACKINAC

SUMMER TOURS.

Four Trips per Week Between
DETROIT, MACKINAC ISLAND
Travelling, the Sea, Mackinac, and
N. B. B.

Our Illustrated Pamphlets,
Containing Complete Information about Mackinac Island, are sent free by post on application to
E. B. WHITCOMB, G. P. A., Detroit, Mich.
THE DETROIT & CLEVELAND STEAM NAV. CO.

WHEN YOU GO

TO LOUISVILLE

Have Your Photograph Made at
WYBRANT'S
New Studio,
No. 327 W. Walnut St.
(Over Macanley's Theatre),
LOUISVILLE, KY.
PICTURES COPIED AND MADE NEW.

THIS PAPER

is in the hands of the Louisville Advertiser

and is the only paper in the city that is not a part of the Louisville Advertiser

and is the only paper in the city that is not a part of the Louisville Advertiser

and is the only paper in the city that is not a part of the Louisville Advertiser

and is the only paper in the